1. Who We Are

In the Kitchen with Nonna™ is a cooking and entertainment brand operated by Nonna Joyce.

We respect the privacy of our website visitors and are committed to handling personal information responsibly.

This Privacy Policy explains how information is collected, used, stored, and shared when you visit nonnajoyce.com, contact us, or interact with our website and its content.

By using our website, you acknowledge the data practices described in this Privacy Policy.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect or receive certain information when you interact with our website.

Information You Voluntarily Provide

When contacting us through our website, you may provide:

- Your name
- Your email address
- The subject of your inquiry
- The contents of your message
- Other information you voluntarily include

We use this information primarily to respond to inquiries and communicate with visitors.

We do not currently operate a website email newsletter subscription service.

IP Addresses and Technical Information

Our website is hosted through GitHub Pages, with domain registration and management provided by GoDaddy. When visitors access our website, GitHub Pages and related infrastructure may automatically process or store technical information, including IP addresses and website requests, for security and operational purposes.

In the Kitchen with Nonna™ does not currently have direct access to visitor IP address logs maintained by GitHub Pages.

Other third-party services may also process technical information when visitors interact with their features.

3. How We Use Information

We may use information received through our website for the following purposes:

- Responding to visitor questions, comments, and business inquiries.
- Communicating with individuals who contact us.
- Maintaining and operating our website.
- Identifying and addressing technical or security issues.
- Protecting our website against misuse, spam, or unauthorized activity.
- Complying with applicable legal obligations.

We do not currently use information submitted through our contact forms to operate an email marketing newsletter.

We may share information with service providers when necessary to deliver requested services, operate the website, or comply with legal requirements. We do not sell your personal information.

4. Service Providers and Third-Party Content

We use third-party services to support the operation and maintenance of nonnajoyce.com.

GitHub Pages — Website Hosting

Our website is hosted using GitHub Pages, a service provided by GitHub. GitHub may process and retain certain technical information, including visitor IP addresses, for website delivery, security, and related operational purposes.

GitHub Privacy Statement: https://docs.github.com/en/site-policy/privacy-policies/github-general-privacy-statement

GoDaddy — Domain Registration

Our website's domain name is registered and managed through GoDaddy. GoDaddy provides domain registration and related technical services. Its handling of personal information is governed by its own privacy practices.

GoDaddy Privacy Policy: https://www.godaddy.com/legal/agreements/privacy-policy

FormSubmit — Contact Forms

We use FormSubmit to process messages submitted through our website's contact forms. When a visitor submits a contact form, the information provided is transmitted to FormSubmit and forwarded to our designated email inbox.

Information may include the visitor's name, email address, message, and other information entered into the form. FormSubmit may also process technical information for spam prevention, security, and form delivery.

Gmail — Email Communications

We use Gmail, a service provided by Google, to receive, store, and respond to website inquiries. Messages received through our contact forms or sent directly to our email address may remain in our Gmail account until manually deleted.

Google Privacy Policy: https://policies.google.com/privacy

YouTube — Video Content

Our website features cooking and entertainment content associated with our YouTube channel. Depending on the page, videos may be displayed through an embedded YouTube player, or visitors may be directed to YouTube to watch them.

When you load an embedded player or visit YouTube, YouTube and Google may process technical information, viewing activity, cookies, or similar technologies in connection with these features, under their own privacy practices.

Google Privacy Policy: https://policies.google.com/privacy

Website Development Tools

Our website was developed with assistance from ChatGPT, provided by OpenAI, and is edited and maintained with assistance from Claude, provided by Anthropic. These services are used as development tools. Their use in creating website code does not, by itself, mean they automatically collect information from website visitors.

5. Cookies and Analytics

Cookies are small files that websites or third-party services may store on a visitor's device.

We do not use website analytics or visitor-tracking tools (such as Google Analytics) on nonnajoyce.com, and we do not display advertisements on our website.

Our website's hosting infrastructure and third-party features, such as embedded YouTube videos, may use cookies or similar technologies for functionality, security, or other purposes. We do not control these technologies.

Visitors can generally manage or block cookies through their browser settings. Disabling cookies may affect certain third-party features.

6. Information Retention and Security

We retain contact messages and related correspondence in our Gmail account until they are manually deleted.

We may retain communications as reasonably necessary to respond to inquiries, maintain relevant correspondence, resolve disputes, or comply with applicable legal obligations. Third-party providers may maintain their own records according to their respective retention policies.

We take reasonable steps to protect information within our control, including limiting access to accounts used to manage website communications. However, no website, email service, or electronic transmission can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

7. Your Privacy Rights and Choices

Depending on your location and applicable law, you may have rights regarding your personal information, including the ability to request access, correction, or deletion.

To submit a privacy-related request, contact support@nonnajoyce.com. Please include sufficient information for us to understand your request and identify the relevant correspondence. We may need to verify your identity before fulfilling certain requests. We will review and respond to requests as required by applicable law.

Requests involving information maintained independently by third-party providers may also need to be directed to those providers.

8. Additional Information for California Residents

If you are a California resident, the California Consumer Privacy Act (as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act) may give you certain rights, to the extent it applies to us.

Information we collect. In the past 12 months, we may have collected the following categories of personal information, all provided by you when you contact us: identifiers (such as your name and email address) and the contents of your communications. We may also receive technical information such as IP addresses through our hosting and form providers, as described above.

How we use and disclose it. We use this information for the purposes listed in Section 3. We disclose it only to the service providers described in Section 4 (for example, FormSubmit and Google) as needed to operate the website and handle inquiries.

We do not sell or share your personal information. We do not sell personal information, and we do not share it for cross-context behavioral advertising. We do not knowingly sell or share the personal information of anyone under 16.

Your rights. You may request that we:

- Tell you what personal information we have collected about you and how we have used and disclosed it;
- Provide a copy of the personal information we hold about you;
- Correct inaccurate personal information; or
- Delete personal information we hold about you, subject to legal exceptions.

You also have the right not to be treated differently for exercising these rights.

How to make a request. Email support@nonnajoyce.com with the subject line "California Privacy Request." We will verify your request using the information you provide, and we will respond within the time required by law. You may also use an authorized agent to submit a request on your behalf; we may ask for proof of their authorization.

Do Not Track. Because we do not track visitors across websites, we do not respond to browser "Do Not Track" signals. Third-party services such as YouTube may handle those signals differently.

9. Children's Privacy

In the Kitchen with Nonna™ provides cooking, recipe, and entertainment content intended for a general audience, including families.

Our website is not specifically directed toward children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13 without any parental consent required by applicable law.

If we become aware that we have collected personal information from a child under 13 in circumstances requiring parental authorization, we will take appropriate steps to address or delete the information.

Parents or guardians who believe their child has submitted personal information may contact us at support@nonnajoyce.com.

10. International Visitors

Our website is publicly accessible to visitors from around the world. Information submitted through our website may be processed or stored in the United States or other countries where our service providers operate.

Privacy protections and legal requirements may differ depending on the visitor's location. Where applicable, we will handle personal information in accordance with relevant legal requirements.

11. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically to reflect changes in website functionality, service providers, legal requirements, or information-handling practices.

When changes are made, the revised policy will be posted on this website with an updated revision date. Visitors are encouraged to review this page periodically.
